

WHAT IS THE PARENTS CLUB?

The St. Lawrence Catholic School Parents Club is the collection of all the Parents, Guardians, and extended family members united in purpose of deepening and enriching the educational, social, and religious lives of each student.

Parent participation is MANDATORY.

WHY A PARENTS CLUB?

Parents and guardians are the primary educators of our children. Participation in school activities serves to strengthen the partnership between home and school, resulting in improved academic excellence, richer social engagements, and deeper religious connection across ages.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE?

Volunteer Service

+

Financial Donation

Families can select a method
that best fits their time and talents.

OPTION A

Families will accrue $400 by school year end through qualified donations or contributions

AND

Participate in school volunteer opportunities collecting a total of 20 “Points” of service

OPTION B

Families will make a single $800
donation to St Lawrence School
by mid-September 2025

*Volunteer service is not required, but recommended

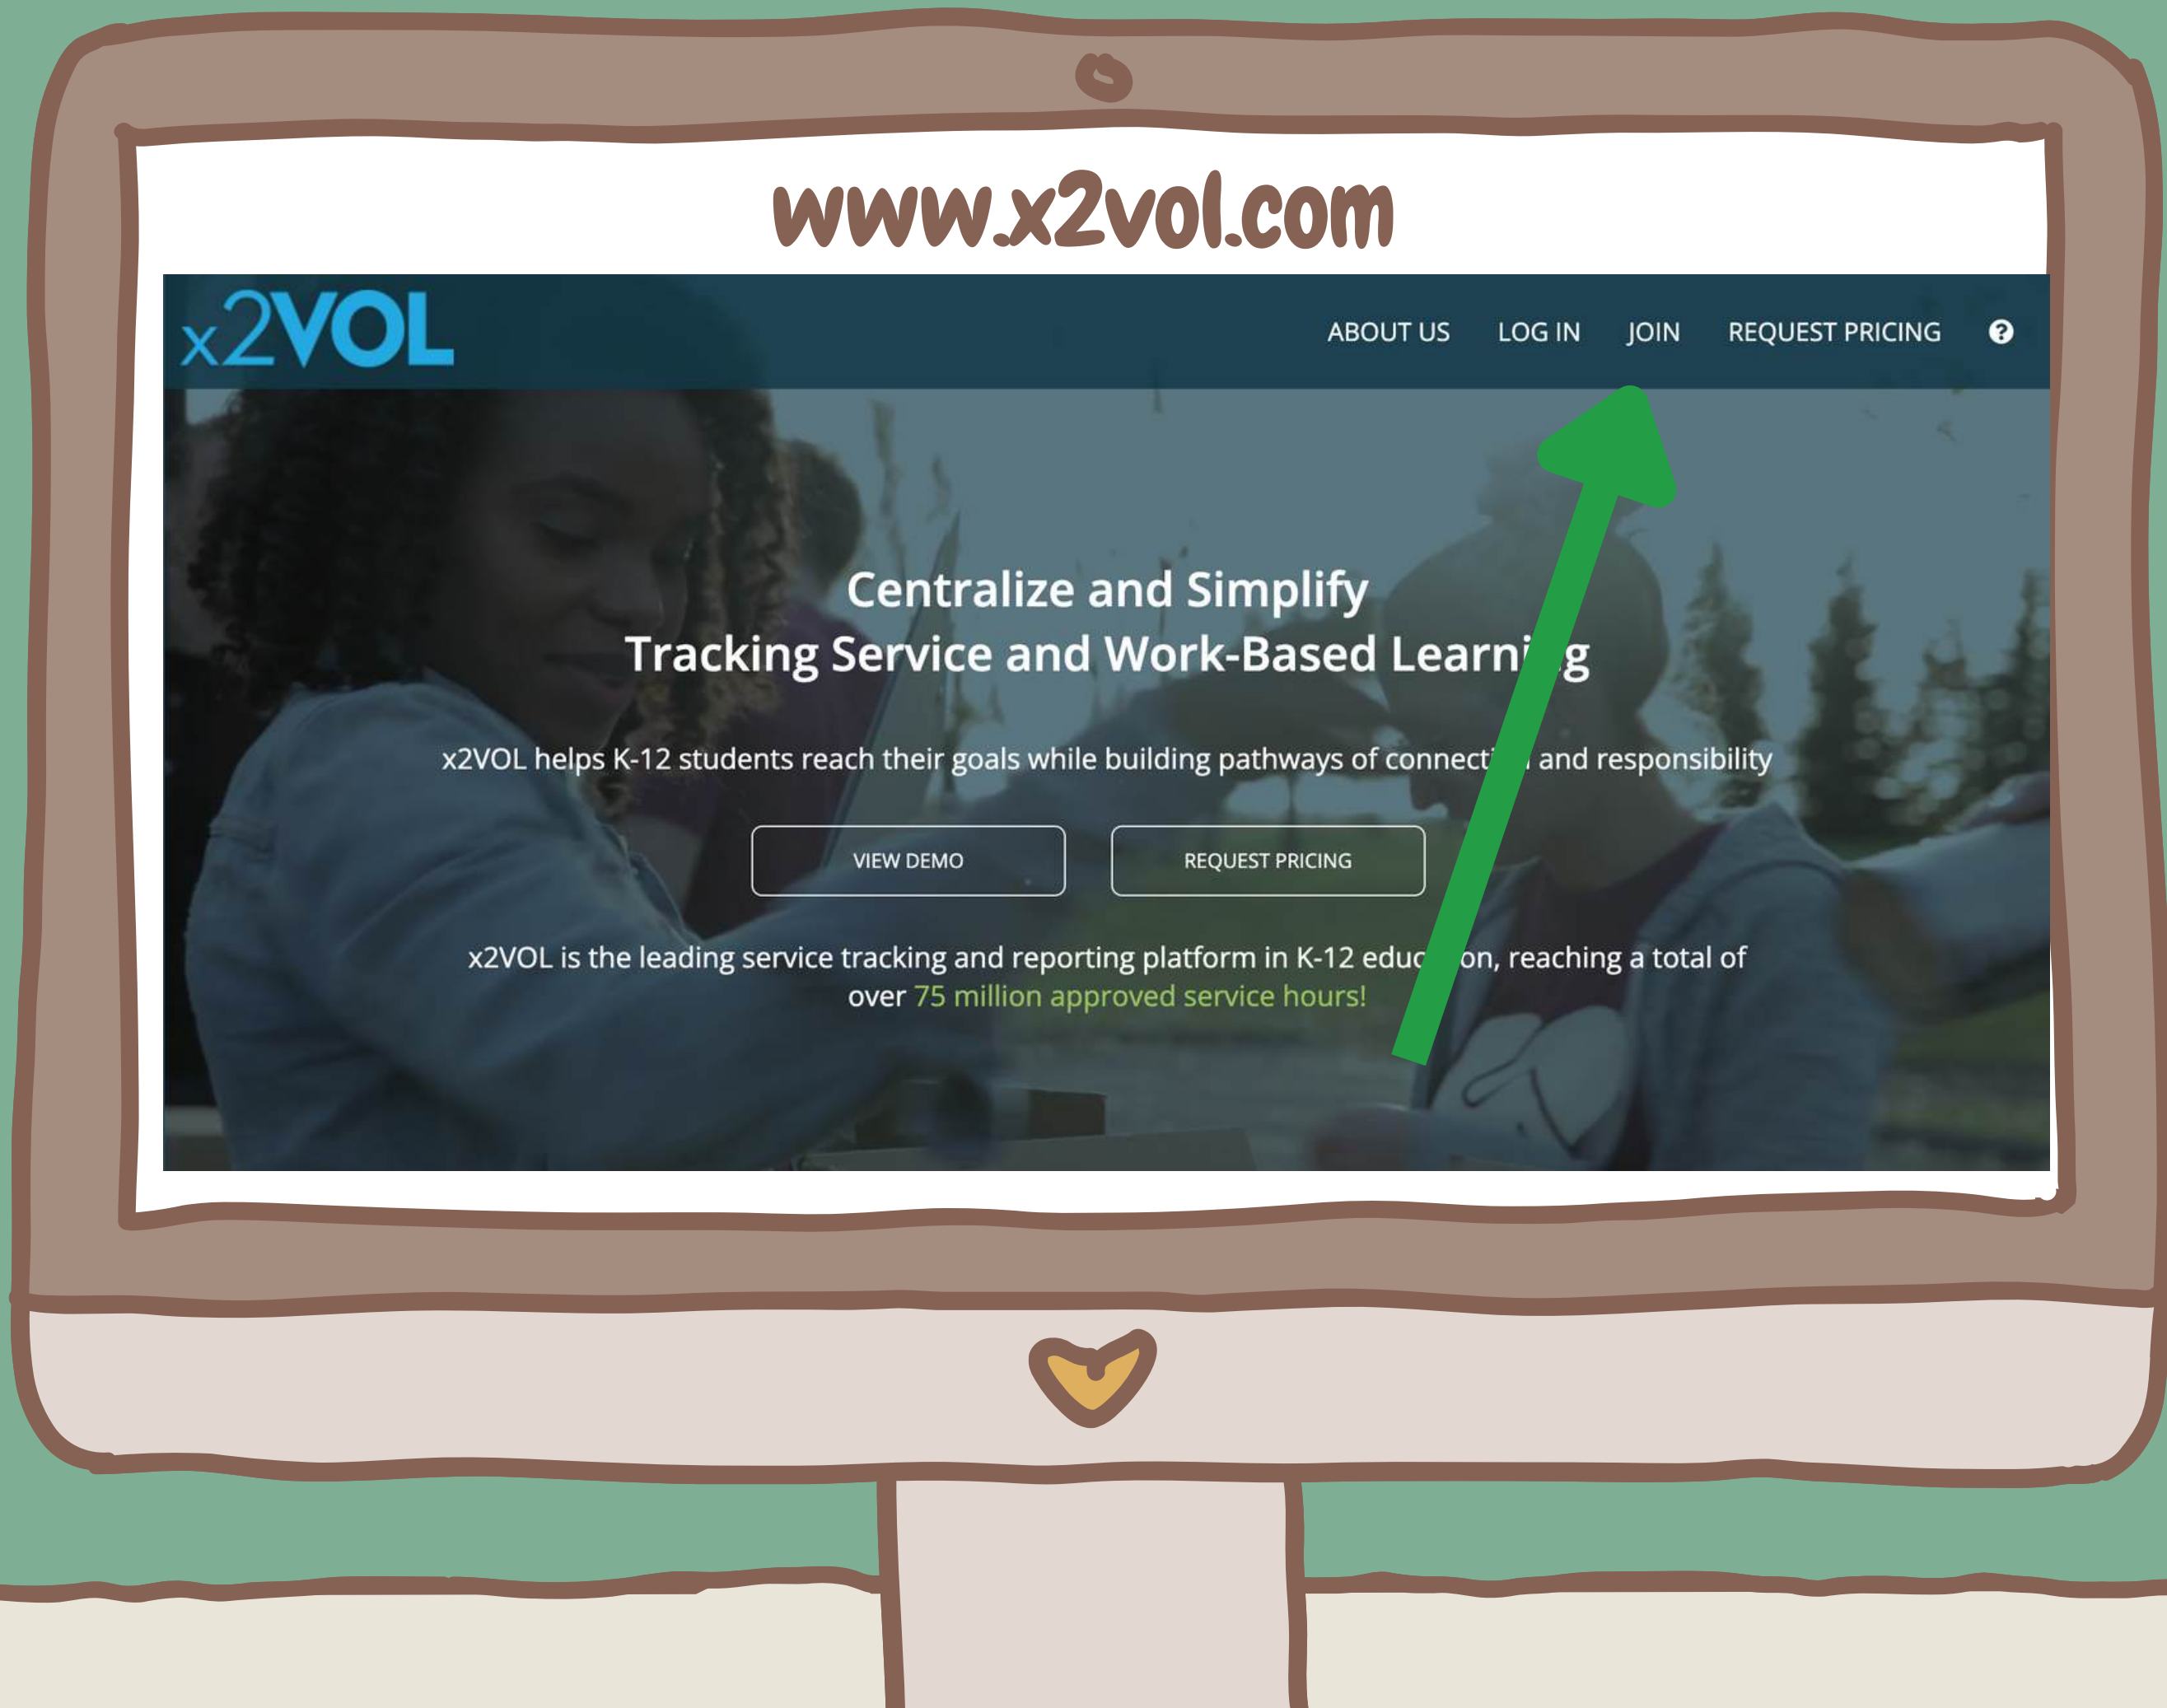

X2VOL!

X2Vol is the primary resource/tracker for all service points throughout the year.

Any discrepancies or missing points should be reported ASAP to ensure full status accuracy.
